

Dear Elm Class,

This is my 14th and final letter! We're nearing the end of term and the summer holidays are approaching- for some of you that might not seem like such a big thing but I can't wait! Obviously I'm really sad about the way it is ending but boy am I looking forward to a lie in! It was really nice seeing some of you when you came to collect your reports this week. I have most certainly missed seeing you every day and I look forward to next Wednesday when I can see you again and hopefully some more of you.

I hope you've had a good week, the weather hasn't been too bad so hopefully you've been able to get out more and do some nice activities. I know some of you have had visits to secondary schools this week and I hope they've gone well and you've enjoyed them. Some of you have told me that you already have your uniform which must be exciting. It must be a strange but exciting feeling.

In school this week we've continued to make a mess with our Anderson shelters and our moving vehicles have been completed with a test run too. Unfortunately, our engineering skills weren't quite F1 standard. Sasha's moved at the speed of light but some others were non-starters or a little bit wonky! Still it was good fun.

I managed to be awake for my hairdresser appointment and it feels so good to have finally got my hair done. This weekend I'm getting my nails done and I'm super excited for that.

Looking forward to seeing you next Wednesday- don't forget your shirt and pen!

Keep sane, keep safe, keep smiling

Miss King
